

Dutch Good Growth Fund

Part of DGGF

Export credit insurance of an export transaction from a Dutch exporter.

Title

DGGF20161201 Farm for the production and sale of chicken eggs in the Democratic Republic of Congo

Investor

Kiezebrink Putten B.V.

Country of investment

Democratic Republic of Congo

Sector

Food

Contract amount

Maximum indemnification: USD 316.822,-

Period

Investment minimum period 3 years

Parties involved

Investor: Kiezebrink Putten B.V.

Co-investor: Bokkers Trading B.V.

Impact on development

Job creation

The investment will contribute to the direct and indirect job-creation. Without the investment the farm is not realized. The investment will have positive effects on the value chain.

Increasing the strenght of production

The strength of production will increase. Sales and profits will most likely increase for the investor and the value chain.

DGGF20161201 Farm for the production and sale of chicken eggs in the Democratic Republic of Congo

Sharing of knowledge, skills and techniques

Exporter provides training and sharing of knowledge to the local staff, the sellers of eggs and local chickenfarmers. A demonstration farm will be opened to train local farmers.

Other positive effects of the transactions

The investment increases local foodproduction and is an example for the chickensector with regards to animal welfare, health and results.

Risk category

The transaction is considered a risk category C (low)

Description

The investment partners invest in a chicken farm in order to produce and sell eggs. Goal of the investment is the creation of a profitable farm with better standards in regard to animal welfare, working conditions, hygiene, food safety than currently the local norm.

DGGF20161201 Farm for the production and sale of chicken eggs in the Democratic Republic of Congo