Description

Part of DGGF

Investing Dutch Entrepreneurs

Description

A Dutch company plans to invest in the production of tempeh (fermented soy as nutrient) in India, together with their local daughter.

They will invest in machinery and tools, operational costs, buildings, transport and inventory. The proposed DGGF Starter loan to the Dutch company has a duration of less than seven years.

The estimated impact on local employment is the creation of approx. 52 local jobs and knowledge transfer to local soy farmers: production methods, good agricultural practices, amongst others.

This project will contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals: 1 (No Poverty), 2 (Zero Hunger), 6 (Clean Water and Sanitation), 8 (Decent Work), 9 (Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure) en 12 (Responsible Production and Consumption).

Country of investment

India

Risk category

The investment is scaled category B in terms of CSR-risk.

A CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility) action plan will be drafted, which is based upon the OECD and IFC performance standards. The action plan aims to mitigate the risk on environmental aspects, working conditions and development aspects for the local community.
